September 18th On Stage with the Three Sopranis

Brooke Evers

Renowned and accomplished sopranos Brooke Evers, Natalie Conte and Elisabeth Turchi join forces to present some of the most beloved arias and songs in the musical theater and opera world, accompanied by James Harp. Selections include works from Mozart and Bizet to Cole Porter and Sondheim.

Natalie Conte

Elisabeth Turchi

Treat yourself to vocal thrills and frills, and prepare yourself for the comic upstagings, antics, and confessions of these real-life divas.

October 16th Cozzolani

* This concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

known for its magical music-making.

Hailed as the finest composer in her lifetime, Chiara Margarita Cozzolani spent her entire life at Santa Radegonda, a convent in Milan

It is said that huge crowds would fill the exterior of the church to listen to the heavenly voices singing Cozzolani's music.

Join Concert delle Donne and Heaven's Noyse on a journey back to 17th century Italy through the celestial music of Chiara Margarita Cozzolani.

November 6th Music of Decadence and Derangement

In this captivating all-acoustic program, Duo Orfeo presents music of utter refinement, elegance and delicacy alongside music that is eccentric, bizarre and occasionally maniacal.

Deeply enamored with the sonority of their chosen instruments and relentlessly searching out the music most in harmony with their expressive sensibilities, Duo Orfeo brings to life a world of sound that is intimate, charming, subtle, and haunting.

December 4th * This concert will begin at 2:30 p.m. Sweet was the Song the Virgin Sang

Tenor Brendan Sliger and the women voices of Voix de Femmes will recall, through songs old and new, the marvelous events of this season: the expectancy of a mother, the birth of a baby, the dawn of a new world.

December 18th Annual Candlelight Christmas Concert

Resurrection's adult, Youth and Women's choirs will present selections from Hodie, A Christmas Cantata, an inspirational retelling of the Christmas story by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

The program will also include carols from around the world, accompanied on the organ with brass, woodwinds, and percussion instruments, and of course Resurrection's talented handbell choir!

January 22nd
Bill and Friends Present: Rendez-vous with Francis Poulenc

Who was this musical trouble maker? Was he acting on his own? Or was he part of a grand conspiracy to topple the artistic establishment? He certainly kept dubious company in the "cafés" of Paris!

Join Bill Wisnom and Friends and hear how Francis Poulenc escaped musical obscurity while preserving his soul and his sense of humor.

February 12th
Love Songs, Wine, and Chocolate: An Enchanting Evening!

This Valentine's Day, enjoy classic love songs from the Great American Songbook, as performed by jazz vocalist Lena Seikaly.

Dubbed by The Washington Post as "one of Washington's brightest voices in jazz," Seikaly's lush stylings will be sure to delight you and your valentine.

March 18th
From the Shenandoah to the Sea

Elisabeth Winn, Sarah Maines, and Shalisha Nason (Shenandoah Conservatory) are the main cast of the opera, Riders to the Sea, by Ralph Vaughan Williams. In this 40-minute staged version, we share the waiting, the loss, the resistance, and finally the acceptance of a woman who loses her son to the sea. Grace Cho and Voix de Femmes will provide the accompaniment for this powerful musical tale.

April 22nd
Dancing Heart Presents
 "Classical Rocks"

"Classical Rocks" celebrates the spirit with works such as Aaron Copland's evocative Duo, Scott Joplin's irresistible Rags, and the soulful tango music of Astor Piazzolla. This unique, fun, dynamic program features flutist Karen Johnson, pianist Carlos-Cesar Rodriguez, and percussionist John Kilkenny.

May 20th
The Brass are Coming!
 The Brass are Coming!

"What's the count?"

Running from audiences the world over, these moguls of metallurgy will astonish and amaze you with their slides and pistons. Led by the notorious David Kanter, this star-crossed ensemble plays music from all over the place and then some!

June 10th
Project Natale

Project Natale has captured jazz audiences with their repertoire and their high energy playing. They infuse the music from the past into the here and now. This concert is sure to be remembered!

Project Natale members are Joseph F. Natale (upright bass), Lou Natale (drums), Carl Cornwell (tenor sax), and Bob Butta (piano).

The Living Arts Concert Series is funded in part by a generous bequest from Doris Ann Tansley.
